

CAMPTON PLAYERS RECEIVE TOP HIGH SCHOOL HONORS

Campton United has a long and proud history of developing soccer players to achieve the highest competitive level. Eleven players from Campton United Soccer Club have received top High School honors this year:

Seamus Kaminski - junior at Geneva High School; received All-Sectional, All-Conference, All-Area Honorable Mention, Chronicle First Team and Chronicle All-Area Boys Soccer Team.

Johnny Schnell - senior at St. Charles East High School; received All-Sectional, Chronicle First Team and Chronicle All-Area Boys Soccer Team.

Anthony Torres - sophomore at Batavia High School; received All-Sectional and Chronicle Second Team.

Charlie Lyon - senior at St. Charles East High School; received All-State, Chronicle First Team and Chronicle All-Area Boys Soccer Team.

Brady Wahl - junior at Geneva High School; received All-Conference, All-Area, All-State, Chronicle First Team and Chronicle All-Area Boys Soccer Team.

Kevin Hilgart - senior at Geneva High School; received All-Sectional, All-Conference MVP, All-Area Honorable Mention and Chronicle First Team.

Robbie Johnson - junior at Geneva High School; received All-Conference and Chronicle Second Team.

Craig Hancock - junior at Geneva High School; received All-Area and Chronicle Honorable Mention.

Noah Anthony - junior at St. Charles North High School; received Chronicle Honorable Mention.

Kyle Reopelle - junior at Burlington Central High School; received Daily Herald All-Area and Unanimous All-Conference.

Zander Carpanzano - junior at Montini High School; received All-Conference, All-Sectional and Honorable Mention.

Additionally, Charlie Lyon and Anthony Torres will be playing in the US Soccer Developmental Academy this year after making the tryouts for the Chicago Fire Academy teams.

"We are very proud that all these young men are being recognized at top High School players," says Mark MacKinnon, Director of Soccer for Campton United. "It's a deserving honor for each of them."