

CAMPTON UNITED U17 NAVY PLAYER,
ROBBIE JOHNSON, SELECTED TO DISNEY ALL STAR TEAM

Campton United is proud to announce that U17 defender Robbie Johnson of Geneva was selected to the 2010 Disney Soccer Showcase All-Star Team! Robbie is one of 18 players selected from some of the most prestigious soccer clubs in the country from nine different states.

Campton's U17 team traveled to Florida for the 2009 Disney Soccer Showcase over the winter break. The all star group will be hosted by Adidas on a trip to England in August for a week of intensive training at the famed Chelsea Academy in London.

Robbie, a member of Campton's 2009 Regional Championship team and has played at Campton since he was 10 years old.

Mark MacKinnon, Director of Soccer, states, "This is a once in a lifetime opportunity for any player, and Robbie certainly deserves it. We are all very proud of him."
